Business License Agency Check-Off List

Pursuant to the provisions of Business License Tax - Chapter 10B of the City of Fairfield Municipal Code, issuance of a business license does not constitute a guarantee of endorsement nor approval by the City of Fairfield. This license does not authorize nor exempt the conduct of continuance of any operation in violation of other City codes and ordinances, county, state, or federal laws, or any other government agency. The City of Fairfield-issued business license is a tax certificate that serves as proof of payment of the business license tax.

In addition to obtaining a business license, business owners should contact the following agencies to determine if their business operations are subject to additional permits, licenses, and filings to ensure compliance.
