About the City of Fairfield Commercial Cannabis Program

The City of Fairfield has established a commercial cannabis regulatory program to permit and regulate commercial cannabis activities within the City. The City will permit up to two retail cannabis businesses, one cannabis manufacturing business, and an unlimited number of cannabis testing lab businesses. A commercial cannabis business permit is required to operate a cannabis business located within the City. A competitive application process has been created to award commercial cannabis business permits. For additional information on the program please visit www.fairfield.ca.gov/cannabis.
